Our Lady's Message to Marija on September 25, 2026

"Dear children!

May this time be a time of prayer for peace.

I am calling you to renew in your families the prayer of the Rosary for my intentions, so that I may be able to multiply your prayers and intercede for you before the Most High, [for Him] to heed your prayers and to give you peace.

I am with you and like never before I pray for you and with you, my little children.

Thank you for having responded to my call."

A Moment with Mary - Cathy Nolan

Reflecting on Our Lady's September 25 message, Ivan Dragičević offers a powerful invitation to make our families places of prayer and peace.

Our Lady asks us not simply to pray the Rosary, but to "renew" it in our families. Ivan reminds us that peace in the world begins with conversion in our own hearts, with forgiveness, reconciliation and a return to God.

We may not be able to end the world's wars ourselves, but through prayer we can begin by ending the "small wars" within our own hearts and homes.

Fruit of Medjugorje 619 - Katy Moreno

Katy Moreno's remarkable connection with Medjugorje began before she was born.

As a frightened young student, her mother twice sought an abortion, but on both occasions the procedure did not take place. She ultimately chose life for her daughter. Remarkably, Katy was born on 25 June 1981, the date now celebrated as the anniversary of the Medjugorje apparitions.

Nearly 45 years later, Katy finally came to Medjugorje to thank Our Lady, Queen of Peace, whom she believes has accompanied her throughout her life.

Update from Denis - 22 September

Dear Family of Mary,

I want to invite you to a simple challenge we are starting today: Walk with Our Lady. I'm going to pray at least one full Rosary every day while I walk (about 2,000-2,500 steps) and add Our Lady's Wednesday and Friday fast as I am able.

I ask you to compete with me-not against me. If a full Rosary walk is too much, begin with one decade around the house or yard. If you can do more, God bless you. No sign-ups, no apps required-just put one foot in front of the other with the Rosary in your hand, as Our Lady asked. I'm in. Who will walk with me?

God bless you,
Denis Nolan

Fruit of Medjugorje 620 - Fr. Olek Stirrat

Fr Olek Stirrat, a priest of the Archdiocese of Adelaide, shares how Medjugorje has quietly accompanied his family and his own vocation.

From initial scepticism of his mother's devotion to returning as a priest and pilgrimage chaplain, Fr Olek describes Our Lady's gentle, maternal guidance and the profound experience of hearing confessions in Medjugorje.

His testimony is an invitation to trust Mary's guidance, begin simply with the Rosary, and allow her to lead us to Jesus.

Homily 12/9/26 - Fr Peter Dugandzic

Fr Peter reflects on two things seen everywhere in modern life: the Rosary and the mobile phone.

Both can be tools but what we fill our minds and hearts with ultimately shapes us. He encourages us to put technology aside, pray more deeply, and recognise that Our Lady's messages are addressed personally to each of us. Her call is to become prayer, peace and love, particularly within our families.

His simple challenge: don't see another person as a problem to fix, but as a person to love.

Sermon to Go - Fr Leon - 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Fr Leon reflects on the Christian responsibility to speak the truth with love.

Drawing on Ezekiel, St Paul and Jesus' teaching on fraternal correction, he explains that warning others about sin is not about condemnation, but concern for their souls and is one of the spiritual works of mercy. Authentic love, he argues, cannot be separated from God's commandments.

Christians are therefore called to be prophetic witnesses: neither remaining silent nor conforming to the world, but courageously proclaiming the truth while always acting from genuine love.
